

Pine Cone Journal

What you need: Pinecones, journal (or paper).

What to do: Observe the pinecones and the weather daily. Note that when the weather is dry, the pinecones stay open. When it's about to rain, the pinecones close! This is a great way to talk about weather prediction with the students. Pine cones actually open and close based on the humidity to help seed dispersal.